THE WOMAN'S JOURNAL

For equal suffrage news, read The Woman's Journal, a weekly paper, founded in 1870, edited at 3 Park St., Boston, Mass., by Henry B. Blackwell and Alice Stone Blackwell. Three months on trial, 25 cents; one year, $1.50.

"The Woman's Journal is the most reliable and extensive source of information regarding what women are doing, what they can do and what they should do. It is the oldest of the women's papers now in existence, and has built up for itself a solid and unblemished reputation."—Julia Ward Howe.
